This is my first attempt to tie dyeing in a specific way. It's a bit more demanding than other folding techniques, but I'm very happy with what's over. I'll have to practice my pleating, though to make the way cleaner. - Kit Tie-Dye - Tank or T-shirt (white or light color - mine is gray) - Washable markers (I did not have one and used a pencil... not worked very well) -Plastic to cover table -Plastic bag (zip or grocery store) (Note: Your Tie-Dye Kit should contain rubber bands and gloves)Prepare your shirt following the instructions in the dye kit. Typically, this involves pre-washing and soaking the shirt in water or possibly soda ash. Cover your desk with plastic. Take the shirt off the soaking water and squeeze any excess. Fold the shirt in half vertically. The fold will divide the heart in half to ensure two 'equal' sides. Using your marker, draw half a heart on the shirt, with the center line along the folded edge of the fabric. Starting at a drawn heart ledge, pinch both layers and gather/pleated the shirt along the drawn heart line. That might take a little practice. Feel free to start over (I did many times)Since the whole contour is pleated, secure with 2 or 3 elastics. Mix the dyes with water according to the instructions in the dye kit. Decide which color you want for the heart and apply it (fuschia). I used a second color (blue) and applied randomly to the rest of the shirt. Wrap your shirt in a plastic bag and leave it set overnight (check the kit instructions). The next day, rinse the shirt well to remove all excess dye. Wash (separately) and place flat to dry. That's all there is to it! This technique works for any form (guitar??). Have you tried tying dyeing shapes? Download this Free Tutorial here! Have you seen any of my other tie dye designs? Cool Tie Dyed Long Johns Reverse Tie Dyeing with Bleach Amaze your loved ones this Valentine's Day with a tee tinged tie that is full of heart. Follow the simple instructions to create these floating hearts using the One-Step Tie-Dye Kit @ a good step. Print 1. Pre-wash shirt without fabric softener and leave damp. Cover the work surface with plastic table cover. the damp tee on the covered work surface. 2. Fold the shirt in half the length, smoothing all the creases. 3. Use washable marker to draw three half-heart shapes along the center fold. 4. Starting at the bottom of the heart shape of the first half, make small folds along the line of markers, drawing the folds of fabric into straight line so that the marked tops of the folds form a straight line. Secure with a zip tie. 5. Fix a second zip tie approximately 1 out of the first tie. Ensure a third zip tie approximately 2 out of the second tie. 6. Repeat above the step with the remaining half-heart shapes. 7. Place the dough rack on the protected work surface and place the shirt tied to the dough rack. 8. Mix dyes according to the instructions on the package. 9. Apply purple dye to the first tied section of the shirt, keeping the dyeing away from the second zip tie. Repeat in the first section of other tied hearts. 10. Apply red dye on the third tied section of each heart, skipping the second small tied section. 11. Apply fuschia dye to the remaining body of the shirt. 12. Cover the dyed shirt with plastic table cover and let it be fixed for 6-8 hours. 13. Rinse the shirt under cold running water to remove excess dye. Remove the ties. 14. Wash and seal shirt according to the instructions of the dye package. The Specifications and Guidelines (including all future changes) are incorporated by reference in this Agreement. This Agreement is in addition to, and does not replace or modify, the terms and conditions of use of the Prime Publishing websites and its Affiliates. Close close Sharing your own images Who can share images? You! Anyone who is a registered and logged-in user. What should I share? Please share images that will help other visitors. For example: Images that highlight the features of an article (here are the controls on this music player. See the clasp for this necklace. Look at the box that came) Images showing someone using a product (Here I am using this scarf. Install the ink cartridge here) Images related to a topic (My Dog Skipper. A great outfit. Our family in Yellowstone. How to paste a chair using a closet clip) Images that show how a product works (I took this picture with this camera. This shirt shrank in the wash. The saw blade after 100 cuts) Images that give a notion of the size of the product (This refrigerator is actually 1.80 m high. A cell phone the size of a credit card) Include captions for your images. Although not necessary, they provide context for your images. In addition, you can use the Image Notes feature to highlight one or more interesting areas in your image. Everyone will see your notes when they scroll your image. What shouldn't I share? Behave like a guest at a friend's dinner: please treat the Prime Publishing community with respect. Do not share: Profane, obscene or spiteful images, or any nude images Images to which you do not own the intellectual property rights Images with phone numbers, mail addresses or URLs. You can tag an image with copyright information. Images with availability, price or alternative information for ordering/sending Images with external websites, contests or other requests Any personal information about children under the age of 13 Images with license plates that are prominent and easily read (images with license plates that have been or that otherwise cannot be read are acceptable). The same guidelines apply to your captions and notes. What are the image formats and sizes We support JPEG, GIF and PNG images. The files should not be more than 1MB. Both the image height and the image width must be between 60 and 3500 pixels. Instead of uploading an image, can I type a link to an image? No, all images must be sent to Prime Publishing. This ensures that your image is always available. How long does it take to upload an image? The time varies depending on the speed of your Internet connection and the size of the image file. For a 400KB image, for example, you should wait 2 to 4 minutes on a 56KB modem and less than 1 minute for dSL or cable modem. Where will my image appear? Usually your image will appear where you uploaded it: in the item image gallery. Who owns the images I upload? The owner of the image rights remains the owner of the file; uploading your image to Prime Publishing does not transfer ownership. close close
